

Antitrust Compliance Statement

EOPSA is committed to conducting all its activities, meetings, and other engagements in full compliance with applicable antitrust and trade regulations. All members, staff, and board members are required to adhere to this compliance policy and to consult the EOPSA President or Board immediately if any proposals, actions, or discussions could potentially raise antitrust concerns. Any breach of this policy is considered a direct conflict with EOPSA's principles and may result in the revocation of membership.
